Article 21 The Company or its subsidiaries (including its affiliates) shall not give financial assistance, in the form of gift, advance, guarantee, compensation or borrowings, to others for the acquisition of the shares of the Company or its parent company, except for the implementation of the employee shareholding schemes of the Company.

Unless otherwise provided for by laws, regulations and securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, for the benefit of the Company, the Company may, upon a resolution by the shareholders' meeting or by the Board of Directors under these Articles of Association or the authorization of the shareholders' meeting, provide financial assistance for others to obtain the shares of the Company or its parent company, provided that the total accumulative amount of the financial assistance shall not exceed ten percent of the total issued share capital. A resolution of the Board of Directors shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all directors.

Section 2 Increase, Decrease and Repurchase of Shares

Article 22 Based on its business and development needs, the Company may increase its registered capital in accordance with relevant laws, rules and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and subject to relevant requirements of the Article of Association, by any of the following methods:

- (I) issuing shares to unspecified targets;
- (II) issuing shares to specified targets;
- (III) allotment of new shares to existing shareholders;
- (IV) conversion of capital reserve to share capital;
- (V) other means permitted by laws, administrative regulations and other securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

The Company's increase of share capital by means of the issuance of new shares, after being approved in accordance with these Articles of Association and securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, and the Articles of Association.

Article 23 In accordance with the Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital. If the Company reduces its registered capital, it shall do so by the procedures provided for in relevant laws, regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 24 If the Company is to reduce its registered capital, it shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of its property.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of adoption of the resolution to reduce its registered capital by the shareholders' meeting and publish a public announcement of the resolution in the media specified in the Articles of Association or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days and post the same on its website and the website of the relevant stock exchange in accordance with the requirements of the place where the Company's shares are listed. Creditors shall, within 30 days of receiving notice, or within 45 days of the date of the public announcement for those who have not received notice, be entitled to require the Company to pay its debts in full or to provide a corresponding security for repayment.

Article 25 The Company shall not buy back its shares, except in one of the following circumstances:

- (I) to reduce the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) to merge with other companies that hold shares in the Company;
- (III) to use the shares for employee shareholding schemes or as share incentives;
- (IV) to acquire the shares of shareholders (upon their request) who vote against to any resolution adopted at shareholders' meetings on the merger or division of the Company;
- (V) to use the shares to satisfy the conversion of those corporate bonds convertible into shares issued by the Company;
- (VI) to safeguard corporate value and shareholders' equity as the Company deems necessary;
- (VII) other circumstances permitted by laws, administrative regulations and approved by regulatory authorities.

The Company shall, in the event of repurchase of the Company's shares due to reasons stated in items (I) and (II) of Article 25 of this Articles of Association, be subject to the resolution on the shareholders' meeting; the Company may, in the circumstances of repurchase of the Company's shares due to reasons set out in items (III), (V), (VI) of Article 25 of this Articles of Association, comply with the requirements of this Articles of Association or authorization by the shareholders' meeting, be subject to the resolution by more than two-third of the directors present in the Board meeting. If the Company purchases its shares in accordance with the circumstances stated in item (I) of Article 25, the shares shall be cancelled within 10 days from the date of acquisition; or transferred or cancelled within six months in case of items (II) and (IV) of Article 25; or the total number of shares held by the Company shall not exceed ten percent of its total issued shares in case of items (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 25 and such shares shall be transferred or cancelled within three years.

Where the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed have otherwise provisions on the relevant matters involved in the aforementioned share repurchase, those provisions shall prevail.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 26 Unless otherwise provided by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the shares of the Company may be transferred in accordance with laws.

The transfer of H Shares shall be registered with the H Share registrar appointed by the Company from time to time. The number of shareholders of the Company after the transfer shall comply with the relevant requirements of laws and regulations.

All transfers of H Shares shall be effective with a written instrument of transfer in general or ordinary format or such other format (including the standard transfer form or registration form required by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange where the shares of the Company are listed from time to time) as acceptable to the Board. The instrument of transfer may be signed by hand, or be affixed with a corporate seal if the transferor or transferee is a company. If the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house (the “Recognized Clearing House”) as defined under the relevant ordinances in effect from time to time in accordance with laws of Hong Kong or an agent thereof, the signature on the instrument of transfer may be signed by hand or in mechanically-printed form. All instruments of transfer must be kept at the legal address of the Company or other place as may be designated by the Board from time to time.

Article 27 The Company shall not accept its shares being held as security under a pledge.

Article 28 Shares issued prior to the public offering of the Company’s shares shall not be transferred within one year from the date the Company’s shares are listed and traded on the stock exchange.

The directors and senior management members of the Company shall report to the Company the shares of the Company held and the changes in their shareholdings. During his/her term of service as determined at the time of taking office, he/she should not transfer more than 25% of the total number of shares of Company held each year. The shares of the Company held shall not be transferred within one year from the date of listing and trading of the Company’s shares. Any of them should not transfer the shares of the Company held within half a year upon departure from the Company.

Where laws, administrative regulations, rules of the CSRC or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed have otherwise provisions on the restrictions on the transfer of the shares of the Company, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 29 The Company is permitted to close its register of members on terms equivalent to section 632 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong). Where a period of book closure prior to the convening of shareholders’ meetings or the record date for the determination of the Company’s dividend distribution is provided for under laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and by relevant stock exchanges or regulatory authorities of the places where the shares of the Company are listed, such provision shall prevail.

Chapter 4 Shareholders and Shareholders' Meetings

Section 1 General Provisions for Shareholders

Article 30 The Company shall establish a register of shareholders based on the credentials provided by the securities registration and clearing institution, and the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' holdings of the Company's shares.

A shareholder shall enjoy relevant rights and assume relevant obligations in accordance with the class and number of shares held. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall enjoy the equal rights and assume the same obligations.

Article 31 When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, distributes dividends, undergoes liquidation or engages in other activities that require confirmation of shareholder identity, the Board of Directors or the convener of the shareholders' meeting shall determine the share registration date. Shareholders registered on the register of shareholders after the close of business on the share registration date shall be the shareholders entitled to the relevant rights and interests.

Article 32 The Shareholders of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (I) the right to dividends and other profit distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (II) the right to propose, convene and preside over, to attend or appoint proxies to attend shareholders' meetings, the right to speak and to exercise the voting right thereat in accordance with law in proportion to the number of shares held (except where a shareholder is required to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration in accordance with the applicable laws, administrative regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed);
- (III) the right to supervise, suggest or raise enquiries about the Company's business operations;
- (IV) the right to transfer, give as a gift or pledge the shares held in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (V) the branch register of members in Hong Kong shall be open for inspection by shareholders, however, the Company may be permitted to close the register of members on terms equivalent to section 632 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- (VI) the right to inspect and duplicate the Articles of Association, the register of members, the minutes of the shareholders' meeting, resolutions of the Board of Directors' meetings, and the financial and accounting reports. Shareholders who meet the requirements may inspect the Company's accounting books and accounting vouchers;

- (VII) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of the remaining property of the Company in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (VIII) shareholders who dissent from the resolution on merger or demerger of the Company made at the shareholders' meeting request the Company to acquire their shares;
- (IX) such other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 33 Shareholders requesting to inspect or copy the Company's materials as stipulated in item (VI) of Article 32 of the Articles of Association shall comply with the provisions of the Company Law, the Securities Law and other laws, administrative regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, and shall provide the Company with written documents proving their identity, the class of shares they hold and the number of shares held. The Company shall provide such materials as requested by the shareholders after verifying their identities.

Shareholders who separately or collectively hold three percent or more of the shares of the Company for 180 or more consecutive days may request an inspection of the accounting books and vouchers of the Company. Shareholders requesting an inspection of the accounting books and vouchers of the Company shall submit a written request to the Company, stating the purpose. If the Company has reasonable grounds to believe that the shareholders' inspection of the accounting books and vouchers for any improper purpose that may harm the legitimate interests of the Company, it may refuse to provide access for inspection, and shall reply to the shareholders in writing within 15 days from the date of the shareholders' written request, stating the reasons therefor.

Article 34 If the content of a resolution of shareholders' meeting or Board of Directors of the Company violates laws or administrative regulations, shareholders have the right to request a people's court to declare it invalid.

If the procedures for convening, or the method of voting at, a shareholders' meeting or meeting of the Board of Directors violate the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, or the contents of a resolution violate these Articles of Association, shareholders shall have the rights to submit a petition to the People's Court to revoke such resolution within 60 days from the date on which such resolution is adopted. However, this does not apply if the convening procedures or voting methods of the shareholders' meeting or Board meeting have only minor flaws that do not have a substantial impact on the resolution.

If there is a dispute among the Board of Directors, shareholders and other relevant parties regarding the validity of a resolution of a shareholders' meeting, a lawsuit shall be promptly filed with a people's court. Pending a judgment or ruling from a people's court to nullify a resolution, the relevant parties shall implement the resolution of the shareholders' meeting. The Company, its directors and senior management shall duly perform their duties to ensure the normal operation of the Company.

If a people's court makes a judgment or ruling on relevant matters, the Company shall perform its information disclosure obligations in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC and the stock exchange, fully explain the impact, and actively cooperate with the execution after the judgment or ruling becomes effective. Where the correction of prior period matters is involved, such matters shall be handled in a timely manner and the corresponding information disclosure obligations shall be fulfilled.

Article 35 A resolution of shareholders' meeting or Board of Directors of the Company is not established if any of the following circumstances exists:

- (I) no shareholders' meeting or Board meeting was held to make the resolution;
- (II) no vote was taken on the resolution matter at the shareholders' meeting or Board meeting;
- (III) the number of attendees at the meeting or the number of voting rights they hold did not reach the threshold stipulated by the PRC Company Law or these Articles of Association;
- (IV) the number of persons who approved the resolution or the number of voting rights they hold did not reach the number or voting rights stipulated by the Company Law or these Articles of Association.

Article 36 If a director or any senior management member (other than members of the Audit Committee) violates any laws or administrative regulations or breaches the Articles of Association in performing his/her duties, causing losses to the Company, shareholders holding one percent or more of the shares in the Company, either individually or collectively, for 180 or more consecutive days, shall have the right to request the Audit Committee in writing to institute a legal action in a people's court; if a member of the Audit Committee violates any laws or administrative regulations or breaches the Articles of Association in performing his/her duties, causing losses to the Company, such aforementioned shareholders may request the Board of Directors in writing to institute a legal action in a people's court.

If the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors refuses to institute a legal action upon receipt of the written request from the shareholders, or fails to do so within 30 days from the date of receipt of the written request, or if the circumstances are urgent and failure to promptly institute a legal action would cause irreparable harm, the shareholders mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall have the right to institute a legal action in a people's court in their own names in the interests of the Company.

In the event that a third party infringes upon the legal interests of the Company, thereby causing the Company to sustain a loss, the shareholders, as specified in the first paragraph of this Article, may institute a legal action in a people's court pursuant to the first two paragraphs hereinabove in this Article.

If a director, supervisor or senior management member of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company violates any laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the Articles of Association in performing his/her duties, and incur a loss to the Company, or in the event the legal interests of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company are violated by other parties and a loss is incurred, shareholders, either individually or jointly holding more than one percent of the Company's shares for more than 180 consecutive days may, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding three paragraphs of Article 189 of the Company Law, submit a written request to the audit committee or the board of directors of the wholly-owned subsidiary for commencing legal proceedings in a people's court, or directly file a lawsuit with a people's court in their own name.

If a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company does not have a supervisory committee or supervisors, but has established an audit committee, it shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of clause 1 and 2 of this Article.

Article 37 If a director or senior management member violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, or these Articles of Association, thereby harming the interests of shareholders, the shareholders may file a lawsuit with a people's court.

Article 38 The Shareholders of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay the share subscription monies based on the shares subscribed for and the method of acquiring such shares;
- (III) not to withdraw the share capital except under the circumstances stipulated by laws and regulations;
- (IV) not to damage any of the interests of the Company or other shareholders by abusing the shareholder's rights, nor damage the interests of any creditor of the Company by abusing the independent status of the Company as a legal person and limited liability of shareholders;
- (V) to assume other obligations required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders shall not be liable to make any further contributions to the share capital other than according to the terms agreed by the subscribers of the shares at the time of share subscription, unless otherwise specified.

Article 39 If a shareholder abuses his/her shareholder rights, thereby causing the Company or shareholders to sustain a loss, he/she shall be held liable for damages in accordance with the laws. If a shareholder abuses the independent status of the Company as a legal person and limited liability of shareholders to evade a debt, thereby materially harming the interests of a creditor of the Company, he/she shall bear joint and several liability for the debt of the Company.

Section 2 Controlling Shareholders and De Facto Controllers

Article 40 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall exercise their rights and perform their obligations and safeguard the interests of the listed company in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the CSRC and the securities regulatory department of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 41 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall comply with other provisions of laws, administrative regulations, rules of the CSRC, rules of the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and these Articles of Association.

If a controlling shareholder and de facto controller of the Company does not serve as a Director of the Company but actually executes the affairs of the Company, the provisions of the Articles of Association on the duties of loyalty and diligence of Directors shall apply. Where the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Hong Kong Listing Rules") and other applicable laws and regulations provide for the protection of minority investors, the Company shall implement such provisions.

If a controlling shareholder or de facto controller of the Company instructs a director or senior management member to engage in an act that is detrimental to the interests of the Company or its shareholders, he/she shall bear joint and several liability with the director or senior management member.

Article 42 Where a controlling shareholder or de facto controller pledges the shares of the Company that he/she holds or actually controls, he/she shall maintain the stability of the Company's control and production operations.

Section 3 General Provisions of Shareholders' Meetings

Article 43 The shareholders' meeting of the Company shall comprise all shareholders. The shareholders' meeting shall be the organ with authority of the Company and shall exercise the following functions and powers in accordance with the law:

- (I) to elect and replace non-employee representative directors and to decide on matters relating to their remuneration;
- (II) to consider and approve reports of the Board;
- (III) to consider and approve the profits distribution plans and loss recovery plans of the Company;
- (IV) to make resolutions on increasing or reducing the registered capital of the Company;
- (V) to make resolutions on the issuance of corporate bonds;

- (VI) to make resolutions on the merger, division, dissolution, liquidation/voluntary winding-up or change in corporate form of the Company;
- (VII) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (VIII) to make resolutions on the engagement or dismissal of accounting firms that undertake audit work of the Company;
- (IX) to consider and approve of the guarantees stipulated by Article 44 hereof;
- (X) to consider matters relating to the acquisition and disposal of material assets or guarantee amounts of more than 30% (30% inclusive) of the latest audited total assets of the Company, within one year;
- (XI) to consider share incentives plans and employee shareholding schemes;
- (XII) other matters that required to be resolved by the shareholders' meeting as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association;
- (XIII) other matters that required to by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 44 The external guarantees by the Company shall be considered and approved by a shareholders' meeting or the Board according to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

Where a director or senior management member commits any act in violation of the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles of Association regarding the approval authorities and review procedures for external guarantees, which cause losses to the Company, he/she shall be liable for compensation, and the Company may file a lawsuit against him/her in accordance with laws.

Article 45 The shareholders' meetings include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meetings shall be convened once a year and within 6 months after the end of the preceding accounting year.

Article 46 The Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months from the date of the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (I) the number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than 2/3 of the number prescribed in the Articles of Association;
- (II) when the unrecovered loss of the Company reaches 1/3 of the total paid-in capital;

- (III) when a shareholders' meeting is requested in writing to be convened and/or to add proposals to its agenda by shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding ten per cent or more of the shares (excluding any treasury shares) of the Company;
- (IV) the Board considers it necessary or the Audit Committee proposes that such a meeting shall be held;
- (V) when a proposal for holding such a meeting is made with the consent of more than one half of all independent non-executive Directors of the Company;
- (VI) other circumstances as specified by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

The number of shares held mentioned in item (III) above shall be calculated as the number of shares held as of the close of the date (excluding any treasury shares) or, if it falls on a non-trading date, the previous trading date on which such shareholders request to convene the meeting in writing (excluding any treasury shares).

Article 47 The venue of the shareholders' meeting convened by the Company shall be the domicile of the Company or other place specified in the notice of shareholders' meetings.

After the notice of a shareholders' meeting has been issued, the venue of the physical meeting shall not be changed without a valid reason.

A meeting venue shall be established for the shareholders' meeting, and meetings will take the form of physical meeting. Simultaneously, shareholders are permitted to participate online. On the premise of the lawfulness and validity of shareholders' meetings, according to the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Company shall facilitate the participation of shareholders in shareholders' meetings by way of network, video, telephone or other online means. The Company shall also allow shareholders to vote by online or other means. Shareholders participating in a shareholders' meeting through the aforementioned means shall be deemed to be present, and shall have the right to speak and vote.

Section 4 Convening of Shareholders' Meetings

Article 48 The Board shall convene shareholders' meetings on time within the time limit as required.

With the consent of more than half of all independent non-executive directors, the independent non-executive directors have the right to propose to the Board of Directors that an extraordinary general meeting be convened, and shall make such proposal to the Board of Directors in writing. In response to a proposal from independent non-executive directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, provide a written response agreeing or disagreeing to convene the extraordinary general meeting within ten days of receiving the proposal. If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of the general meeting within five days of the Board's resolution; if the Board of Directors disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall explain the reasons and make an announcement.

Article 49 The Audit Committee shall propose to the Board of Directors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, provide a written response agreeing or disagreeing to convene the extraordinary general meeting within ten days of receiving the proposal.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of the meeting within five days of the Board's resolution, and any changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the Audit Committee.

If the Board of Directors disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or fails to respond within ten days of receiving the proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed unable or failing to perform its duty to convene the meeting, and the Audit Committee may convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

Article 50 A shareholder or shareholders holding, individually or jointly, ten percent or more of the Company's shares (excluding any treasury shares) have the right to request the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall submit such request to the Board of Directors in writing. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, provide a written response agreeing or disagreeing to convene the extraordinary general meeting within ten days of receiving the request.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of the meeting within five days of the Board's resolution, and any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or fails to respond within ten days of receiving the request, a shareholder or shareholders holding, individually or jointly, ten percent or more of the Company's shares (excluding any treasury shares) have the right to propose to the Audit Committee that an extraordinary general meeting be convened, and shall submit the request to the Audit Committee in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of the meeting within five days of receiving the request, and any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders.

If the Audit Committee fails to issue a notice of the shareholders' meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed that the Audit Committee will not convene and preside over the shareholders' meeting, and a shareholder or shareholders holding, individually or jointly, ten percent or more of the Company's shares (excluding any treasury shares) for 90 consecutive days or more may convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 51 If the Audit Committee or shareholders decide to convene a shareholders' meeting on their own, they must notify the Board of Directors in writing and at the same time file a record with or make a public announcement to the stock exchange of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Before the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' meeting, the shareholding percentage of the convening shareholders shall not be less than ten percent (excluding any treasury shares).

The Audit Committee or the convening shareholders shall, when issuing the notice of the shareholders' meeting and the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' meeting, submit relevant supporting materials (if required) to the securities regulatory authority at the Company's place of registration and the stock exchange of the place where the Company's shares are listed in accordance with relevant laws and regulations and the requirements of the rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 52 For a shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders on their own initiative, the Board of Directors and the secretary to the Board of Directors shall provide cooperation. The Board of Directors will provide the register of shareholders for the share registration date.

For a shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders on their own initiative, the necessary expenses for the meeting shall be borne by the Company.

Section 5 Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' meetings

Article 53 The content of a proposal shall fall within the scope of powers of the shareholders' meeting, have a clear topic and specific matters for resolution, and comply with the relevant provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, and the proposal shall be submitted or delivered to the convener in writing.

Article 54 When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, the Board, the Audit Committee and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the total number of shares (excluding any treasury shares) of the Company carrying voting rights shall be entitled to put forward provisional proposals to the Company in writing which should be submitted to the convener 10 days prior to the convening of the shareholders' meeting. The provisional proposals shall have specific topics for discussion and resolution details. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' meeting and announce the contents of the provisional proposal, and shall submit the provisional proposals to the shareholders' meeting for consideration within two days after receiving the proposals, provided that such provisional proposal is in violation of the requirements under laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or falls out of the functions and powers of the shareholders' meeting. With respect to the issuance of a supplemental notice of a shareholders' meeting, where the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed have special provisions, such provisions shall prevail, provided that they do not violate applicable domestic and foreign laws and regulations such as the PRC Company Law and the Guidelines for the Articles of Association of Listed Companies. If a shareholders' meeting is required to be adjourned due to the issuance of a supplemental notice of shareholders' meeting under the securities regulatory rules of the place of the Company's listing, the holding of the shareholders' meeting shall be adjourned in accordance with such rules.

Unless as provided in the preceding paragraph, the convener may not make any changes to the proposals set forth in the notice of the shareholders' meeting or add any new proposals once the notice of the shareholders' meeting has been issued.

The shareholders' meeting may not vote and pass resolution on proposals that are not set forth in the notice of the shareholders' meeting or that are not consistent with this Article.

Article 55 To convene an annual general meeting, the Company shall give written notices (including announcements) of the meeting 21 days before the date of meeting, and to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Company shall give written notices (including announcements) of the meeting 15 days before the date of meeting, informing all registered shareholders of the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting. For the notice given in this Article, the date of issue is the date on which the Company has published or the share registrar engaged by the Company has sent the notice.

Article 56 The notice of a shareholders' meeting shall include the followings:

- (I) the time, place and duration of the meeting;
- (II) matters and proposals that shall be submitted to the meeting for consideration;
- (III) the share registration record date for shareholders who are entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting;
- (IV) other matters required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 57 After the notice of a shareholders' meeting has been issued, the meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without a valid reason, and the proposals listed in the notice of the shareholders' meeting shall not be cancelled. In the event of a postponement or cancellation, the convener shall make an announcement and explain the reasons at least 2 working days in advance in accordance with laws, regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed. If a shareholders' meeting is postponed, the convener shall announce the new meeting date in the notice. Where the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed have special provisions on the procedures for postponing or cancelling a shareholders' meeting, such provisions shall prevail, provided that they do not violate domestic and foreign regulatory requirements.

Section 6 Convening of the Shareholders' meeting

Article 58 The Company's Board of Directors and other conveners shall take necessary measures to ensure the proper order of the shareholders' meeting. For acts that disrupt the shareholders' meeting, cause trouble, or infringe upon the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders, measures shall be taken to stop them and report to the relevant authorities for investigation and handling in a timely manner.

Article 59 All shareholders registered on the share registration date or their proxies are entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting and, in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, to speak and exercise voting rights at the shareholders' meeting (unless a particular shareholder is required under the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed to abstain from voting on a particular matter).

A shareholder may attend the shareholders' meeting in person or entrust a proxy to attend, speak and vote on his/her behalf. Each shareholder is entitled to appoint one representative, who need not be a shareholder of the Company. If a shareholder is a corporation, it may appoint a representative to attend and vote at any shareholders' meeting of the Company, and if such corporate shareholder has appointed a representative to attend any meeting, it shall be deemed to be attending in person. A corporate shareholder may execute the form for appointing a representative by its duly authorized personnel. A shareholder has the right to (1) speak and (2) vote at a shareholders' meeting, unless a particular shareholder is required under the securities regulatory rules of the place listing to abstain from voting on a particular matter.

Article 60 An individual shareholder attending the meeting in person shall present his/her ID card or other valid documents or proof that can establish his/her identity; A person attending a meeting on behalf of another shall present his/her own valid identification document, the shareholder's power of attorney, and a copy of the principal's valid identification document.

A corporate shareholder shall be represented at the meeting by its legal representative or a proxy entrusted by the legal representative. A legal representative attending the meeting shall present his/her ID card and valid proof of his/her status as a legal representative; A proxy attending the meeting shall present his/her own identification document and a written power of attorney duly issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder unit (except where the shareholder is a recognized clearing house or its nominee).

A shareholder without independent legal person status shall be represented at a meeting by its person-in-charge (or, in the case of a partnership, the executive partner or general partner or a representative appointed by the executive partner) or a proxy entrusted by the person-in-charge.

Article 61 A power of attorney issued by a shareholder authorizing another person to attend a shareholders' meeting shall specify the following:

- (I) the name of the principal, and the class and number of shares held in the Company;
- (II) the name or title of the proxy;
- (III) the matters to be proxied and the scope of authorisation, and the shareholder's specific instructions, including instructions to vote for, against or abstain on each matter on the agenda of the shareholders' meeting;
- (IV) the date of issue and the period of validity of the power of attorney;
- (V) it must be signed by the principals or their agents appointed in writing; If the principal is a legal person or other unincorporated organisation, it shall be affixed with the seal of the legal person or unincorporated organisation or signed by its director, person-in-charge or duly authorized agent(s);
- (VI) the proxy form should specify whether the proxy is allowed to vote at his/her own discretion in the absence of specific instructions from the shareholder. The proxy shall exercise voting rights within the scope of authorization. Failing so, it shall be deemed that the proxy may vote at his/her own discretion.

Article 62 The attendance register for the meeting attendees shall be prepared by the Company. The attendance register shall state matters such as the name (or entity name) of the attendee, ID card number, the number of voting shares held or represented, and the name (or entity name) of the principal.

Article 63 The shareholders' meeting requires the directors and senior management members of the Company shall attend the meeting as non-voting participants and accept any inquiries by shareholders.

Article 64 Shareholders' meetings shall be presided over by the chairman of the Board. If the chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, the meeting shall be presided over by a director entrusted by the chairman or jointly elected by more than half of the directors.

At a shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee on its own, the convener of the Audit Committee shall preside. If the convener of the Audit Committee is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, the meeting shall be presided over by the member of the Audit Committee jointly elected by more than one half of the members of the Audit Committee .

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by a shareholder himself or shareholders themselves, the meeting shall be presided over by the representative selected by the convener(s). If for any reason the convener fails to elect a chairman, the shareholder (including proxy thereof) holding the most voting shares thereat shall preside over the meeting.

When a shareholders' meeting is held, if the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure, making continuance of the shareholders' meeting impossible, with the consent of shareholders holding more than one half of the voting rights present at the meeting, the shareholders' meeting may elect a person to serve as chairman of the meeting and the meeting shall continue, unless otherwise provided in the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 65 Minutes shall be kept for the shareholders' meeting, for which the secretary to the Board of Directors shall be responsible.

The meeting minutes shall record the following:

- (I) the time, place, agenda and name or title of the convener of the meeting;
- (II) the name of the chairman of the meeting and the names of the directors, general manager and other senior management members present at or attending the meeting;
- (III) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares held by them and the percentage of such shares in the Company's total shares;
- (IV) the deliberation process, main points of speeches and voting results for each proposal;
- (V) the inquiries or suggestions from shareholders and the corresponding replies or explanations;
- (VI) the names of tellers and scrutineers;
- (VII) other matters that the shareholders' meeting considers necessary or that are required by these Articles of Association or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed to be included in the meeting minutes.

Article 66 The convener shall ensure that the content of the meeting minutes is true, accurate and complete. The directors, the secretary to the Board of Directors, the convener or his/her representative, and the chairman of the meeting who are present at or attend the meeting shall sign the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes, together with the attendance register of shareholders present at the physical meeting, the proxies for attendance, and the valid information on voting via the internet and other means, shall be kept for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 67 The convener shall ensure that the shareholders' meeting is held continuously until a final resolution is reached. In the event that the shareholders' meeting is adjourned or resolutions fail to be reached due to an event of force majeure or other special reasons, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the meeting as soon as possible or terminate that meeting, and an announcement shall be timely made accordingly.

Section 7 Voting and Resolutions at Shareholders' Meetings

Article 68 Resolutions of the shareholders' meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be approved by at least one half of the shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding the voting rights.

Special resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be approved by over two-thirds of the shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding the voting rights.

Article 69 When a shareholder (including a shareholder who appoint proxies to attend the shareholders' meeting) casts a vote on the shareholders' meeting by exercising his/her voting rights based on the number of shares carrying voting rights which he/she represents, each share shall entitle him or her to one vote. On a poll taken, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more votes needs not cast all his/her votes in the same way, unless otherwise provided by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

No voting rights shall attach to the shares of the Company held by the Company, and such portion of shares shall not be counted among the total number of shares carrying voting rights present at a shareholders' meeting. Where there are special provisions in the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, such provisions shall prevail.

Where any shareholder, under applicable laws and regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed, is required to abstain from voting on any particular matter being considered or restricted to voting only against any particular matter being considered, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 70 The following matters shall be passed by ordinary resolutions at the shareholders' meeting:

- (I) work reports of the Board;
- (II) plans for the distribution of profits and for recovery of losses proposed by the Board;
- (III) the election and removal of the members of the Board (except for staff representative directors) and their remuneration;
- (IV) the engagement or dismissal of accounting firms that undertake audit work of the Company, and determination of their remunerations;
- (V) matters other than those that shall be passed by special resolutions as required under the laws, administrative regulations as well as the Articles of Association;
- (VI) other matters which need to be passed by ordinary resolutions as required by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 71 The following matters shall be passed by special resolution at the shareholders' meeting:

- (I) the increase or reduction of the share capital by the Company;
- (II) matters relating to the issuance of corporate bonds by the Company that require approval by special resolution pursuant to applicable laws and regulations;
- (III) the division, merger, dissolution and liquidation/voluntary winding-up of the Company;
- (IV) change in the corporate form of the Company;
- (V) the purchase or disposal of material assets or that of the guarantee amounts accounting for over 30% (30% not included) of the Company's latest audited total assets within a year;
- (VI) the amendment of the Articles of Association;
- (VII) other matters required by laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and those that the shareholders' meeting by way of an ordinary resolution concluded that may have a material impact on the Company and require adoption by way of a special resolution;
- (VIII) other matters which need to be adopted by special resolutions as required by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 72 When a shareholders' meeting considers matters concerning connected transactions, the connected shareholders may make appropriate statements on these connected transactions but shall abstain from voting, and the number of voting shares they represent shall not be included in the total number of valid votes. Such connected transactions shall be approved by a poll of the non-connected shareholders present at the meeting, with more than half of the valid votes cast in favour; if such connected transactions within the scope of a special resolution, they shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the valid voting rights. The announcement of resolutions at the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose the voting results of non-connected shareholders.

For the consideration of matters concerning connected transactions, the abstaining and voting procedures for connected shareholders are as follows:

- (I) The Board of Directors shall make judgment on whether the relevant matters to be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration constitute connected transactions in accordance with the provisions of relevant laws, administrative regulations and departmental rules. In making such judgment, the number of shares held by shareholders shall be subject to that recorded on the record date for share registration;
- (II) If, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the relevant matters to be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration constitute connected transactions, the Board of Directors shall notify the connected shareholders in writing;
- (III) The Board of Directors shall finish the work specified above before giving the notice of the shareholders' meeting, and inform all the shareholders in the notice of the shareholders' meeting of the result of such work;
- (IV) When the shareholders' meeting votes on the connected transactions, after deducting the number of voting shares represented by the connected shareholders, the non-connected shareholders present at the shareholders' meeting shall vote in accordance with these Articles of Association;
- (V) If there are special circumstances where the connected shareholders cannot abstain, the voting can be conducted in accordance with the normal procedures after the Company has obtained an approval from the competent authority, and detailed explanations shall be given in the resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 73 The Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than a director or senior management member whereby such person is put in charge of the management of the whole or a substantial part of the Company's business without the approval of the shareholders' meeting, unless in special circumstances such as the Company being in a crisis.

Article 74 The shareholders' meeting shall vote on all proposals one by one. If there are different proposals on the same matter, such proposals shall be voted on in the order of time at which they are raised. Unless the shareholders' meeting is adjourned or resolutions failed to be reached due to force majeure or other special reasons, no proposal shall be set aside or refrained from voting at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 75 When a proposal is considered at a shareholders' meeting, no amendments shall be made thereto. Otherwise, any changes made thereto shall be considered as a new proposal, and no voting shall be carried out on that proposal at that shareholders' meeting.

Article 76 The same voting right may only be exercised once at a shareholders' meeting, either by on-site voting, online voting or other means. In the event of multiple casting of the same vote, only the first casting of such vote shall be counted as valid.

Article 77 Voting at shareholders' meetings shall be carried out with open ballot.

Article 78 The method of, and procedure for, nominating directors (except employee representative directors) to be elected at the shareholders' meeting are as set forth below:

- (I) Except putting forward a proposal on the election of director candidate in accordance with the Articles of Association by shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares, the Board may, to the extent of the number of persons specified in the Articles of Association, propose a list of recommended director candidates consistent with the number of persons to be elected, and submit the same to the Board for review; once the Board has conducted its review and adopted a resolution determining the director candidates, it shall bring the same before the shareholders' meeting in the form of a written proposal.
- (II) the procedures for nominating director candidates shall be implemented in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC requirements, the rules of the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed and other provisions of the Articles of Association.
- (III) the shareholders' meeting votes on each of the director candidates.
- (IV) if the need arises for an additional or replacement director at short notice, the same shall be proposed by the Board, recommending that the shareholders' meeting elect or replace the same.

Article 79 Shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting, in addition to being required to abstain from voting, shall provide one of following opinions on the proposals to be voted on: for, against or abstain, except for the securities registration and clearing institution which, as the nominal holder of shares under the Stock Connect mechanism between mainland and Hong Kong stock markets, makes declaration according to the intentions of actual holders.

Blank, wrong, illegible or uncast votes shall be deemed as the voters' waiver of their voting rights, and the voting results representing the shares held by such voters shall be counted as "abstain".

Article 80 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts concerning the result of the vote on any resolution, he/she may organize a recount of the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting does not conduct a recount of the votes and an attending shareholder or proxy challenges the result of a vote announced by the chairman of the meeting, he/she has the right to demand a vote recount immediately following the announcement of the result, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall promptly organize a recount of the votes.

If a vote recount is conducted at a shareholders' meeting, the result thereof shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 81 Resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be announced in a timely manner in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, and the provisions of these Articles of Association. The announcement shall contain the number of the shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the number of voting shares held by them and the proportion to the total number of voting shares of the Company, the voting method, the voting result of each resolution and the details of each resolution passed.

Article 82 If a resolution is not passed, or the shareholders' meeting alters a resolution passed at the previous shareholders' meeting, a special note shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 83 Where a resolution in relation to the election of directors is passed at a shareholders' meeting, the term of office of the new directors shall commence from the date specified in the relevant election resolution. If the relevant election resolution does not specify the commencement date of the term of office of the new directors, the commencement date of the term of office of the new directors shall be the date on which the resolution is passed at the shareholders' meeting or the date specified in the resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

Where a resolution in relation to the payment of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or the capitalization of capital reserves is passed at the shareholders' meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plans within two months after the conclusion of such shareholders' meeting. If the specific plan cannot be implemented within two months due to the provisions of laws and regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, the implementation date of the specific plan may be adjusted in accordance with such regulations and the actual situation.

Chapter 5 Directors and The Board

Section 1 General Provisions for Directors

Article 84 The Company's directors may include executive directors, non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors. Independent non-executive directors refer to persons who are independent and have no relationship with the Company and its substantial shareholders that may prevent them from exercising independent and objective judgments.

Article 85 A director of the Company shall be a natural person and is not required to hold shares. In any of the following circumstances, a person shall not serve as a director:

- (I) a person without or with limited capacity for civil conduct;
- (II) a person who has been sentenced for corruption, bribery, infringement of property, misappropriation of property or sabotaging the social economic order, or a person who has been deprived of his/her political rights, in each case where less than five years have elapsed since the sentence was served, or in the case of a suspended sentence where less than two years have elapsed since the expiration of the suspension of sentence;
- (III) a person who is a director or plant manager or manager of a company or enterprise in bankruptcy liquidation and is personally held responsible for the bankruptcy of such company or enterprise, where less than three years have lapsed from the date of completion of the bankruptcy liquidation of the said company or enterprise;
- (IV) a person who was the legal representative of a company or enterprise whose business license has been revoked or which has been ordered to close down due to violation of laws and is personally held responsible for such circumstance, where less than three years have lapsed from the date of such revocation of business license or closure order;
- (V) a person who has been identified as a subject of enforcement for breach of trust by the people's court for failure to repay a significant amount of overdue debts;
- (VI) a person who is subject to CSRC's punishment which prohibits him from entering into the securities market for a period which has not yet expired;
- (VII) a person who has been publicly recognized by the stock exchange as unsuitable to serve as a director or senior management member of a listed company, etc., with an unexpired term;
- (VIII) other circumstances stipulated in laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations or the listing rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed.

If an election or appointment of a director is taken place in contravention of this Article, the said election, appointment or engagement shall be invalid. If a director falls under any of the circumstances set forth in this Article during his/her term of office, the Company shall remove him/her from his/her position and terminate his/her duties.

Article 86 Directors shall be elected or replaced by the shareholders' meeting, and shall be released of their duties by the shareholders' meeting before the expiration of the term of office. The term of office of a director shall be three years. Upon the expiration of the term of office, a director shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment in accordance with the provisions of the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed. However, the consecutive term of office of an independent non-executive director shall not exceed nine years, and he/she shall not concurrently serve as a director of more than six Hong Kong listed issuers. Where the relevant securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed have special provisions on the re-election of directors, such provisions shall prevail. Any director (including managing director or other executive director) can be removed before the expiration of his/her term of office by an ordinary resolution passed at a shareholders' meeting, subject to full compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the provisions of the listing rules of the stock exchange of the place where the Company's shares are listed, provided that no claim arising under any contract shall be affected by such removal.

The term of office of a director shall commence from the date of him/her assumption of office until the expiry of the term of the prevailing session of the Board. Where a director is not re-elected in a timely manner upon the expiry of the term, the original director shall, prior to the assumption of office by the re-elected director, perform his/her duties, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rule and the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Without violation of relevant regulations and securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, any director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board shall hold office from the date of appointment until the first annual general meeting after his/her appointment, and shall then be eligible for re-election.

General manager or other senior management may concurrently serve as a director, provided that the aggregate number of directors who concurrently serve as general manager or other senior management and directors who are employee representatives shall not exceed one half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Article 87 Directors shall comply with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, perform fiduciary obligations to the Company, take measures to avoid conflicts between their own interests and the Company's interests, and must not abuse their authority to seek improper benefits.

A director shall bear the following obligations of fidelity to the Company:

- (I) not to expropriate the Company's property or misappropriate the Company's funds;
- (II) not to open in his/her own name or in another person's name any bank account for the purpose of depositing any of the Company's funds;
- (III) not to exploit his/her official functions and powers to accept bribes or other unlawful income;

- (IV) not to directly or indirectly sign any contract or deal with the Company before reporting to the Board or the shareholders' meeting and passing the resolution at the Board meeting or the shareholders' meeting in accordance with these Articles of Association;
- (V) not to take advantage of his/her position to seek any business opportunity that belongs to the Company for himself/herself or any other person, except that he/she has reported to the Board of Directors or the shareholders' meeting and the matter has been passed by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting, or that the Company is unable to take advantage of such business opportunity in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association;
- (VI) not to engage in business of the same kind as that of the Company either for themselves or on behalf of others, without reporting to the Board of Directors or the shareholders' meeting and obtaining approval through resolutions by the Board of Directors or the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association;
- (VII) not to accept and embezzle commissions from transactions between other persons and the Company;
- (VIII) not to disclose the Company's confidential information without permission;
- (IX) not to damage the interests of the Company by taking advantage of their connected relationship with the Company;
- (X) to safeguard the interests of the Company and all shareholders, and not to harm the interests of the Company for the interests of de facto controllers, shareholders, employees, himself/herself or other third parties;
- (XI) to be bound by other fiduciary obligations stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association.

The income incurred by the director in violation of this Article shall be accounted to the Company; for any loss caused to the Company, he/she shall be liable for compensation.

Where any of the near relatives of the directors or senior management, or any of the enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by the directors, senior management or any of their near relatives, or any of the connected parties who has any other connected relationship with the directors or senior management concludes a contract or conducts a transaction with the Company, the provisions of item (IV) of clause 2 of this Article shall apply.

Article 88 Directors shall comply with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, owe a duty of diligence to the Company, and shall exercise the reasonable care ordinarily expected of a manager for the best interests of the Company in the performance of their duties.

A director shall bear the following duties of diligence to the Company:

- (I) to exercise the rights conferred by the Company in a prudent, careful and diligent way so as to ensure that the business activities of the Company are in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and various economic policies of the PRC, and that the business activities do not exceed the business scope specified in the business license of the Company;
- (II) to treat all shareholders equally;
- (III) to timely understand and pay attention to the business operations and management of the Company;
- (IV) to sign a written confirmation to the Company's periodic reports, to ensure that the Company discloses information in a timely and fair manner, and that the disclosed information is true, accurate and complete;
- (V) to provide information and materials according to the facts to the Audit Committee and not to hinder the Audit Committee from exercising its powers;
- (VI) to be bound by other diligent obligations stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association.

Article 89 A director who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors in person without authorizing another director to attend on his/her behalf, shall be deemed to be unable to perform his/her duties. The Board of Directors shall propose to the shareholders' meeting to remove such director.

Article 90 A director may resign before expiry of his/her term of office. A resigning director shall submit a written resignation report to the Company. The resignation shall take effect when the resignation report is delivered to the Company, and the Company shall disclose the relevant information on the same day. Where a director has resigned during the term of office results in the number of the members in the Board falling below the quorum, the original director shall perform his/her duties as a director, prior to the assumption by the re-elected director, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 91 When a director's resignation takes effect or his/her term of office expires or he/she is removed, he/she shall duly complete all handover procedures with the Board of Directors. His/her fiduciary duties towards the Company and shareholders will not necessarily cease after the expiry of his/her term of office and will remain valid for a reasonable period of time as provided in these Articles of Association. The liability a director bears for actions taken in the performance of his/her duties during his/her term of office shall not be exempted or terminated upon his/her departure from office.

Article 92 Where not otherwise provided by law, members in shareholders' meeting shall have the power to remove any director (including managing director or other executive director) before the expiration of his/her term of office by way of an ordinary resolution, provided that such removal is without prejudice to any claim for damages such director may have under any contract.

If a director is dismissed without just cause before the end of his/her term, the director may seek compensation from the Company.

Article 93 Unless provided for under the Articles of Association or legally authorized by the Board of Directors, no director shall act in his/her name on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors. When a director acts in his/her own name and the third party would reasonably believe that such director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors, such director shall declare his/her position and capacity in advance.

Article 94 Any director who causes losses to others in the performance of his/her duties shall be liable for compensation. If any director is intentional or gross negligent, he/she shall also be liable for compensation.

Where a director (other than a member of the Audit Committee), in performing his/her duties for the Company, violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles of Association and thereby causes losses to the Company, he/she shall be liable for compensation. A director in office shall be liable for compensation for any loss caused to the Company by his/her leaving office without authorization or failing to perform his/her duties.

The independent non-executive directors shall be subject to the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the CSRC and the stock exchanges of the places where the shares of the Company are listed. The independent non-executive directors shall include at least one person who has appropriate accounting or related financial management expertise, or appropriate professional qualifications as referred to in the Hong Kong Listing Rules. The Company's directors may include executive directors and non-executive directors. A non-executive director refers to a person who does not hold any position in the Company other than that of a director. An independent non-executive director may tender his/her resignation before the expiration of his/her term of office. If the resignation of an independent non-executive director results in the number of independent non-executive directors falling below one-third of the number of members of the Board of Directors, or if there is no accounting professional among the independent non-executive directors, or if the requirements stipulated by the regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed are not met, the original independent non-executive director shall continue to perform his/her duties as an independent non-executive director in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles of Association until his/her successor takes office before the newly elected independent non-executive directors assume their positions. If at any time the Company's independent non-executive directors do not meet the requirements stipulated by the regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the Company shall make an announcement and rectify the situation as required by the regulatory authorities or regulatory rules of the place of listing.

Section 2 The Board

Article 95 The Company shall have a Board of Directors consisting of 7 directors, 3 executive directors (among which there is 1 chairman and 1 employee representative director), 1 non-executive director and 3 independent non-executive directors. Independent non-executive directors may directly report to the shareholders' meeting, securities regulatory authority under the State Council and other relevant departments.

The Board shall have one chairman. The chairman shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the directors, shall serve a term of 3 years, and is eligible for re-election.

Article 96 The Board is accountable to the shareholders' meetings and exercise the following functions and powers:

- (I) to convene shareholders' meetings and report its work to the shareholders' meetings;
- (II) to implement resolutions of the shareholders' meetings;
- (III) to decide on the Company's medium and long-term development plans and investment plans;
- (IV) to formulate the Company's profit distribution plans and plans on recovering losses;
- (V) to formulate plans for the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital, the issuance of bonds or other securities and listing plans;
- (VI) to formulate plans for major acquisitions, repurchase of the Company's shares, or merger, division, dissolution and change of corporate form;
- (VII) to decide on the Company's external investments, acquisition or disposal of assets, mortgage of assets, external guarantees, entrusted wealth management, related transactions, external donations and other matters, within the scope of authorization from the shareholders' meeting;
- (VIII) to decide on establishment of internal management organizations of the Company;
- (IX) to decide on appointment or dismissal the Company's general manager and secretary to the Board, the appointment or dismissal of the deputy general manager(s) and the chief financial officer of the Company in accordance with the nominations by general manager(s);
- (X) to decide on the remunerations of the senior management members mentioned above;
- (XI) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;

- (XII) to formulate plans to amend the Articles of Association;
- (XIII) to manage the Company's information disclosure matters;
- (XIV) to propose the appointment or replacement of the accounting firm for the Company's audit at the shareholders' meeting;
- (XV) to consider and approve matters concerning changes in the use of proceeds;
- (XVI) to determine investment, acquisition or disposal of assets, financing, connected transactions and other matters, which are required to be determined by the Board, in accordance with the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed;
- (XVII) to decide on other material matters of the Company apart from such regulated in the Company Law and the Article of Association, while resolutions related thereto shall be passed at the shareholders' meeting;
- (XVIII) other functions and powers conferred by laws and regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed, the Articles of Association and at shareholders' meetings.

Except for the Board resolutions in respect of the matters specified in items (V), (VI) and (XII) which shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the directors, the rest shall be passed by more than half of the directors.

Article 97 The chairman shall exercise the following powers:

- (I) to preside over the shareholders' meeting and to convene and preside over the meetings of the Board;
- (II) to supervise and check the implementation of Board resolutions;
- (III) other functions and powers conferred by the Board.

If the chairman is unable to perform his/her duties, a director jointly elected by at least one-half of the directors shall perform such duties.

When need arises, the Board may authorize the chairman to exercise some powers enjoyed by the Board during the recess of the Board meetings.

Article 98 Board meetings shall be held at least 4 times a year and shall be convened by the chairman.

The chairman shall convene an extraordinary meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal under the following circumstances:

- (I) proposed by shareholders representing at least 1/10 of the voting rights;

(II) proposed jointly by at least 1/3 of the directors;

(III) proposed by the Audit Committee.

Article 99 A notice of regular Board meeting shall be served to all the directors and the general manager 14 days in advance in the event of a regular meeting or 3 days in advance in the event of an extraordinary meeting. The responsible body of the Company shall serve a written meeting notice to all the directors by direct delivery, fax, express mail or other electronic communication means. If service is made indirectly, confirmation shall be made by telephone and the appropriate record thereof shall be made.

Where an extraordinary Board meeting needs to be convened as soon as possible in emergency, the notice of meeting may be sent by telephone or by other verbal means at any time, without being subject to the above notice time limit, but the convener shall make explanations at the meeting.

Article 100 The meeting notice shall be deemed to be delivered to such director if he/she presents at the meeting and does not raise the issue of the non-receipt of such notice prior to his/her arrival at the meeting or the commencement of the meeting.

The regular or extraordinary Board meetings can be held by conference call or other similar communication equipment, for so long as the attending directors are able to hear clearly other directors' speech at the meeting and to communicate among themselves. All attending directors shall be considered as being present at the meetings.

Article 101 A Board meeting shall be held only if more than half of the directors (including their proxies) are present.

When voting on the resolutions of the board of directors, each director shall have one vote. A resolution made by the Board must be approved by more than half of all the directors unless otherwise stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association.

The resolution of the Board of Directors shall be voted by open ballot, by a show of hands, or by mail/fax. On the premise that the directors can fully express their opinions, the extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors may be held and pass resolutions by means of communication (including but not limited to in writing, by video conference, by telephone conference, etc.) or by written circulation, with the resolutions signed by the attending directors, provided that the resolutions and records of the Board of Directors shall be signed afterwards.

Article 102 The directors shall attend the Board meeting in person. If a director is unable to attend the meeting for some reasons, he/she may entrust another director in writing to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. The instrument of proxy shall specify the name of the proxy, the matters to be authorized, the scope of authority and the period of validity, and shall be signed or sealed by the appointor. The director attending the meeting as a proxy shall exercise the rights of the director within the scope of authorization. If a director fails to attend a Board meeting or to appoint a proxy, he/she shall be deemed to have abstained his/her right to vote at that meeting.

Article 103 Minutes shall be maintained for the decisions on matters considered on the Board meeting by the Board. Both the directors who attend the meeting and the minute-taker shall sign on the minutes. Minutes of the meetings of the Board shall be kept as the Company's documents for a period of not less than ten years.

Article 104 The minutes of a Board meeting shall include the following:

- (I) the date, place and name of the convener of the meeting;
- (II) the names of the directors present and the names of the directors (proxies) entrusted by others to attend the Board meeting;
- (III) the agenda of the meeting;
- (IV) the method of voting and the result of each resolution (the voting result shall specify the number of votes for, against or abstained).

Section 3 Independent Non-executive Directors

Article 105 Independent non-executive directors shall diligently perform their duties in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC, the regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and these Articles of Association. They shall fulfil their roles in decision-making participation, oversight, and professional advisory functions within the Board of Directors, safeguarding the overall interests of the Company and protecting the lawful rights and interests of minority shareholders.

Article 106 Independent non-executive directors shall possess the independence required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 107 A person serving as an independent non-executive director of the Company shall comply with the conditions stipulated by laws, regulations, the CSRC, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association.

Article 108 As members of the Board of Directors, independent non-executive directors bear the obligations of fidelity and diligence to the Company and all shareholders, and shall prudently perform the following duties:

- (I) participating in the decision-making of the Board of Directors and expressing clear opinions on the matters discussed;
- (II) supervising potential material conflicts of interest between the Company and its controlling shareholder, de facto controllers, directors, and senior management, and protecting the legitimate rights and interests of minority and small shareholders;
- (III) providing professional and objective advice on the Company's business development to promote and enhance the decision-making level of the Board of Directors;

- (IV) performing other duties stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association.

Section 4 Specialised Committees of the Board of Directors

Article 109 The Board shall have three special committees, namely the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee and the Remuneration Committee. The composition and rules of procedure of the special committees shall be separately agreed upon by the Board.

Article 110 The responsibilities and powers of the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee shall be set out in their terms of reference. The Audit Committee shall exercise the powers of the Supervisory Committee as stipulated in the Company Law.

Chapter 6 Senior Management Members

Article 111 The Company shall have one general manager, who shall be nominated by the chairman and appointed or dismissed by the Board; the Company shall have several deputy general managers, who shall be nominated by the general manager and appointed or dismissed by the Board. A director may serve concurrently as general manager, deputy general manager or other senior management members.

The provisions of these Articles of Association regarding circumstances disqualifying a person from serving as a director and the regulations on resignation management shall also apply to senior management.

The provisions of these Articles of Association regarding the duties of loyalty and diligence of directors shall also apply to senior management.

Article 112 The general manager may serve a term of three years and may serve consecutive terms upon reappointment.

Article 113 The general manager shall be responsible to the Board of Directors and exercise the following powers and functions:

- (I) manage the business operations of the Company and report to the Board of Directors;
- (II) organize the implementation of resolutions of the Board, annual business plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (III) draft the Company's basic management system and plans for the establishment of the internal management structure of the Company;
- (IV) formulate the specific rules of the Company;

- (V) propose to the Board to appoint or dismiss the deputy general manager and financial officer in accordance with these Articles of Association and the relevant internal control system of the Company;
- (VI) decide to appoint or dismiss managers other than those appointed or dismissed by the Board in accordance with to these Articles of Association and the relevant internal control system of the Company;
- (VII) decide on matters such as investment, acquisition or disposal of assets, financing, and related transactions, except for those that require a decision by the shareholders' meeting or the Board of Directors in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed;
- (VIII) exercise other functions and powers conferred in the Articles of Association and by the Board.

Article 114 The general manager shall attend Board meetings, and if he/she is not a director, he/she shall not have any voting right at Board meetings.

Article 115 The Company shall have one secretary to the Board. The Secretary to the Board shall be a member of the senior management of the Company.

Article 116 The secretary to the Board of the Company shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be nominated by the chairman, appointed or dismissed by the Board. His/Her main duties include:

- (I) ensure that the Company has complete organization documents and records;
- (II) act as the liaison officer of the Company with the securities regulatory authorities, be responsible for organizing preparation and timely submission of the reports and documents required by the regulatory authorities as well as accepting and organizing the implementation of any assignment from the regulatory authorities;
- (III) ensure that the share register of the Company is established appropriately and that the persons who have the right of access to the relevant records and documents of the Company obtain the same in due time;
- (IV) be responsible for information disclosure and investor relation management of the Company;
- (V) perform other functions and powers as conferred by the Board as well as other functions and powers as required by the laws, regulations, the Articles of Association, and the stock exchange(s) where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 117 A director or the senior management members of the Company may serve concurrently as secretary to the Board. The accountants of the accounting firm engaged by the Company shall not serve concurrently as secretary to the Board.

In the event a director serves concurrently as secretary to the Board, where any act requires to be executed by the director and the secretary to the Board separately, the said director serving concurrently as secretary to the Board shall not execute the said act in both capacities.

Article 118 Any senior management member who causes losses to others in the performance of his/her duties shall be liable for compensation. If a senior management member acts with intent or gross negligence, he/she shall also be liable for compensation.

Where a senior management member, in performing his/her duties for the Company, violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles of Association and thereby causes losses to the Company, he/she shall be liable for compensation.

Article 119 The senior management members of the Company shall faithfully perform their duties and safeguard the best interests of the Company and all its shareholders. If a senior management member of the Company, due to failure to faithfully perform his/her duties or a breach of the duty of good faith, cause damage to the interests of the Company and its public shareholders, he/she shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the law.

Chapter 7 Financial and Accounting Systems, Distribution of Profits and Audit

Section 1 Financial and Accounting Systems

Article 120 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the accounting standards formulated by the financial authority of the PRC.

Article 121 The Company shall use RMB as the primary accounting currency.

The Company shall, at the end of each fiscal year, prepare a financial report, which shall be examined and verified according to law. The financial statements of the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations.

Article 122 The Board of the Company shall at each annual general meeting submit to shareholders the financial reports prepared by the Company as required by relevant laws, administrative regulations, local government and regulatory documents issued by competent authorities.

Article 123 The Company shall not keep any accounting book other than the statutory accounting books. The assets of the Company shall not be kept under the account set up in the name of any individual.

Article 124 The financial reports of the Company shall be made available at the Company for review by shareholders 21 days before the date of annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to receive a copy of the financial reports referred to in this chapter.

The financial reports mentioned in the preceding paragraph include the Board's report together with its balance sheet (including such documents as may be appended as required by the PRC laws or other laws and administrative regulations) and its statement of profit of loss (profit statement) or statement of income and expenditure (cash flow statement), or, without any violation of relevant PRC laws, a summary financial report approved by the stock exchange(s) where the shares of the Company are listed.

The Company shall, at least 21 days before the date of each annual general meeting, serve the aforesaid financial reports to each holder of the overseas listed foreign shares of the Company according to contact information provided by shareholders or those specified in the register of members. Subject to the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the relevant provisions of the securities regulatory body in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Company may deliver such documents by announcement (including publication on the Company's website).

Article 125 Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations.

Article 126 When the Company distributes the after-tax profits of the current year, 10% of the profits shall be allocated to the statutory reserve fund. No further contribution to the statutory reserves fund is required when the cumulative amount of the statutory reserves fund exceeds 50% of the registered capital of the Company.

Where the Company's statutory reserve fund is insufficient to cover the previous year's losses, the Company shall first use the profits of the current year to cover the losses before withholding the statutory reserve fund according to the provisions of the previous paragraph.

After the Company withdraws the statutory reserve fund from the after-tax profits, it may also withdraw optional reserve fund from the after-tax profit upon the resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

The remaining after-tax profits of the Company after making up the losses and withdrawing the reserve funds are profits available for distribution to shareholders, and may be distributed according to the proportion of shares held by the shareholders based on the resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

If the provisions of the preceding paragraph are violated and the profits are distributed to the shareholders before the Company makes up the losses and withdraws the statutory reserve fund, the shareholders must return the profits distributed in violation of the provisions to the Company; in case of losses caused to the Company, shareholders and responsible directors and senior management members shall be liable for compensation.

The Company's shares held by the Company shall not participate in the distribution of profits.

Article 127 The capital reserves fund shall include the following items:

- (I) premium received in excess of the par value of the issued shares;
- (II) other revenue as required by the competent financial authorities of the state to be so included.

Article 128 The reserves funds of the Company may be used to cover its losses, expand the operation, or converted into the capital of the Company.

When the statutory reserve fund is converted into capital, the remaining statutory reserve fund shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the capital increase.

Article 129 The Company may distribute dividends in either of the following forms (or both):

- (I) Cash;
- (II) Shares.

Article 130 The Company shall appoint one or more receiving agents in Hong Kong on behalf of holders of the overseas listed shares to receive on behalf of such shareholders dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of their overseas listed shares and hold such monies in his/her custody pending payment to the related shareholders.

The receiving agents appointed shall comply with the laws and the requirements of the stock exchange(s) where the shares of the Company are listed.

For dividends that are not claimed by anyone, the Company may exercise the right of expropriation under the precondition of complying with the relevant laws and regulations of China, but the right shall be exercised only after the expiration of the applicable period.

The Company shall only cease sending dividend warrants to the holder of the overseas listed foreign shares by post if such warrants have been left uncashed after having been sent twice consecutively. Such power may be exercised by the Company after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

In the case of anonymous warrant, no new warrant shall be issued to replace the lost warrant unless the Company is convinced that the original warrant has been destroyed beyond reasonable doubt.

The Company shall have the right to sell the shares of shareholders of overseas listed shares who are untraceable in a way deemed appropriate by the Board of directors, provided the following conditions are met:

- (I) the dividends have been distributed at least three times to such shares within 12 years, and the dividends are not claimed by anyone during the period; and

- (II) the Company publishes announcement in newspapers in the place where the shares of the Company are listed after the expiration of the 12-year period, stating its intention to sell the shares, and informs the stock exchange(s) where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 131 The Company shall pay cash dividends and other payments to holders of unlisted domestic shares in RMB. When the Company pays cash dividends and other payments to the holders of overseas listed foreign shares, it shall be denominated and declared in RMB and paid in Hong Kong dollars. The foreign currencies required by the Company to pay cash dividends and other payments to the holders of overseas listed foreign shares shall be processed in accordance with relevant state regulations on foreign exchange control.

Unless otherwise specified in the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the exchange rate for cash dividends and other payments paid in Hong Kong dollars shall be calculated on the basis of the average central parity rate of foreign currency against RMB published by the People's Bank of China one calendar week prior to the date of announcement of the dividends and other payments.

Section 2 Engagement of Accounting Firms

Article 132 The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which complies with the provisions of the Securities Law to audit the annual financial reports and other reports of the Company.

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the founding meeting prior to the first annual general meeting, and the term of office of the accounting firm shall expire at the end of the first annual general meeting.

Article 133 The term of office of the accounting firm appointed by the Company shall commence from the conclusion of the annual general meeting at which the appointment is made and shall end at the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

Article 134 The accounting firm engaged by the Company shall have the right to:

- (I) inspect books, records or vouchers of the Company at any time and to request any director, general manager or other members of the senior management of the Company to provide relevant materials and explanations;
- (II) request the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries such materials and statements as necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties;
- (III) attend shareholders' meetings, obtain any notice of the meeting or other information regarding to the meeting which any shareholder has the right to receive, and make a statement on matters concerning its engagement as the accounting firm of the Company in any shareholders' meeting.

The Company shall provide the accounting firm engaged by them with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting materials and shall not refuse, conceal and make false reports.

Article 135 If the office of the accounting firm becomes vacant, the Board may, prior to a shareholders' meeting is convened, appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy. During the period when such vacancy lasts, where the Company has any other accounting firms in office, such accounting firms may continue to act until the next annual general meeting of the Company and shall be eligible for re-election.

Article 136 Notwithstanding the terms of the contract between an accounting firm and the Company, the shareholders' meeting may, prior to the expiry of the term of office of any accounting firm, decide to remove such accounting firm from office by an ordinary resolution. Such removal from office shall not limit the rights of the accounting firm to claim for compensation.

Article 137 The remuneration of the accounting firm or the mode of determination of the same shall be decided by ordinary resolution at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 138 The decision to engage, remove or discontinue the engagement of an accounting firm shall be made by ordinary resolution at the shareholders' meeting. The relevant procedures shall be implemented in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC requirements, the rules of the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed and the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 139 The Company shall notify the accounting firm in advance before dismissing or discontinuance of engagement of such accounting firm. The accounting firm shall be allowed to present its view at the shareholders' meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall explain to the shareholders' meeting whether there is any impropriety on the part of the Company.

Chapter 8 Notices and Announcements

Section 1 Notices

Article 140 Notices of the Company shall be given in the following forms:

- (I) by hand;
- (II) by mail;
- (III) by fax or email;
- (IV) by way of a public announcement (including publication on the Company's website or the website of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed);
- (V) by other means required by the Articles of Association.

For the purpose of providing and/or delivering corporate communication to the holders of H shares as required by securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the Company may deliver such notice by electronic means to the holders of H shares or post such notice on the websites of the Company or the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, subject to securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 141 Where a notice is served by way of public announcement, upon the publication of such announcement, all relevant persons shall be deemed to have received the notice.

Article 142 The notice of a shareholders' meeting of the Company shall be given by hand, mail, fax or public announcement. Unless the context otherwise requires, in respect of an announcement issued to the holders of H Shares or issued in Hong Kong as required under the relevant regulations and the Articles of Association, the announcement shall be published on the Company's website, the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and other websites as stipulated by the Hong Kong Listing Rules from time to time in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

With respect to the manner in which the Company provides and/or distributes corporate communications to holders of H Shares as required by the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, subject to the relevant listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the Company may also distribute or provide corporate communications to holders of H Shares by electronic means or by publishing the information on the websites of the Company or the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, in lieu of delivery by hand or by prepaid mail to holders of H Shares.

Corporate communications referred to in the preceding article mean any document issued or to be issued by the Company for the information or action of the holders of H shares of the Company or other individuals required under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, including but not limited to:

1. the Company's annual reports and annual results announcements (including the Company's annual accounts together with the auditors' report and the summary financial report, if applicable);
2. the interim report and the summary of the interim report of the Company, if applicable;
3. notices of meetings;
4. listing documents;
5. circulars;
6. proxy forms (as defined in the listing rules of the stock exchange(s) of the place(s) in which the shares of the Company are listed).

Article 143 Notice of convening the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be served by hand, mail, email, fax or announcement.

Article 144 For a notice given by hand, the person on whom it is served shall sign (or affix his/her seal to) the acknowledgement slip, and the date on which he/she signed in receipt shall be the date of service; for a notice given by mail, the date of service shall be the third working day from the date of consignment to the post office; for a notice given by fax, the date on which such notice is dispatched shall be the date of service; for a notice given by email, the date of service shall be the day when the email enters the mailbox system designated by the person to be served; for a notice given by public announcement, the date of service shall be the day when the announcement is first published.

Article 145 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not solely invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Section 2 Public Announcements

Article 146 The Company shall issue announcements and disclose information to domestic shareholders through newspapers and websites designated by laws, administrative regulations or relevant domestic regulatory authorities for information disclosure. If an announcement is required to be delivered to the holders of H Shares under these Articles of Association, such announcement shall also be published in the designated newspapers, websites and/or websites of the Company in the form as required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules. All notices or other documents which shall be submitted by the Company to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange under Chapter 19A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules shall be in the English or accompanied by a signed and certified English translation thereof.

Article 147 The Company shall publish its announcements and other information required to be disclosed through the media/websites designated by the relevant domestic regulatory authorities and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

Chapter 9 Merger, Division, Capital Increase, Capital Reduction, Dissolution and Liquidation

Section 1 Merger, Division, Capital Increase and Capital Reduction

Article 148 The merger or division of the Company shall require the preparation of a proposal by the Board. After such proposal has been adopted in accordance with the procedures specified in the Articles of Association, relevant approval procedures shall be carried out in accordance with the law. Shareholders that oppose the proposal for the merger or division of the Company shall have the right to require the Company or shareholders that are in favor of such proposal to purchase their shares at a fair price. The contents of resolutions approving the merger or division of the Company shall be compiled in a special document for inspection by shareholders.

Article 149 A merger may take either the form of a merger by absorption or the form of a merger by new establishment.

If the Company is involved in a merger, the parties to the merger shall enter into a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and a property list. Within 10 days from the date of adoption of the merger resolution, the Company shall notify its creditors and within 30 days it shall make an announcement in the qualified media or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's HKExnews website (www.hkexnews.hk). Creditors shall, within 30 days of receiving written notice, or within 45 days of the date of the public announcement for those who have not received written notice, be entitled to require the Company to pay its debts in full or to provide a corresponding security for repayment.

Upon merger of the Company, the claims and debts of each party to the merger shall be succeeded to by the company surviving the merger or the new company established as a result of the merger.

Article 150 If the Company is divided, its property shall be divided accordingly.

When the Company is divided, a balance sheet and a property list shall be prepared.
